E. D. AKE, EDITOR.

VOLUME XXVI. NUMBER 1.

IRONTON, : : : JULY 7, 1892.

FOR PRESIDENT:
GROVER CLEVELAND,
OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT:
ADLAI E. STEVENSON, OF ILLINOIS.

Does Judge Dinning still think it a "walk-over?"

TRICKERY and bull-dozing may win once, but rarely does it twice.

MR. BLAINE has suffered insolence, insult and impertinence at the hands of the narrow-minded Ben. Mayhap he won't get even in November.

D. J. ALLEN and Geo. T. Lee, have withdrawn from the race for State Senator from the twenty-first district. This insures the nomination of Robert Drum of Bollinger.

It required $400,000 to carry Indiana for Harrison in 1888 and it is stated a much larger sum will be needed this year. Ben is said to be already hunting for the boodle.

SAM. BYRNS has not returned to Washington. Why not? If he is such an ardent Free-Silverite that Mills wasn't good enough for him, Samuel has no business away from his duty now. Ain't it?

ADLAI E. STEVENSON is a great believer in "turning the rascals out" and did his full share in that kind of work under Mr. Cleveland's administration. Mr. Stevenson will prove an excellent vice president.

We have yet to see a denial that Sam. Byrns grossly violated the confidence of his constituency when he refused to support Mills for the Speakership. And there is no reasonable excuse for his conduct. He should be relegated.

INCIDENTALLY it may be remarked that there is not half the talk now among the Republicans of Maj. Warner carrying Missouri, as there was shortly after his nomination in April. Maj. Warner is getting out of the way of the band wagon.

Is the appointment of Jno. W. Foster as Secretary of State, Ben. Harrison has again shown how narrow-minded and pig-headed he is. Foster's pre-ference is merely to slight Blaine and his friends, for the appointee has no qualifications for the exalted position he now fills.

In the event of a deadlock between the Stone and Dalton delegates at the State Convention there is no denying the fact that Hon. Pope Yeaman will stand a splendid show of securing the gubernatorial nomination. And he would make a most excellent Governor, too.

At the State Convention last week the Iowa Republicans preserved a studied silence on the liquor question, and the platform makes no reference whatever to prohibition. Trying a straddle, it seems, but it won't work. Gov. Boies will hold the state in line for Mr. Cleveland.

THE attention, more especially of our Republican readers, is called to an article on the first page of this paper, copied from the Globe-Democrat, in reference to the appointment of Foster as Secretary of State by President Harrison. It clearly defines the numerous blunders of such action on Benjamin's part.

We want to know how any person that is in earnest in the fight for tariff reform can conscientiously support Mr. Byrns for re-nomination. Mr. Byrns' vote on the Speakership helped to relegate Mr. Mills, and in relegating Mr. Mills, tariff reform was given a slap in the face. The want of action of the present House shows conclusively the truth of these statements.

THE nominations of Cleveland and Stevenson are proving to be the strongest that could possibly have been made. Already are there indications of a united party in New York and a glorious victory, while the Republicans are so fearful of losing Illinois that they have chosen a man from that state as National Chairman, thereby hoping to strengthen the chances there.

THE Democracy of Missouri would make no mistake in nominating A. W. Florea of Nodaway county for Lieutenant Governor. As Speaker pro tem of the House, at the regular session, he showed great fairness and ability as presiding officer, and on the floor demonstrated ability as a debater. Before entering politics he was the principal of the Hopkins school for years, and is now a farmer in the county of his residence.

Is it not about time that the Judicial Committee for the Twenty-first Circuit get together and issue a call for a convention? True, the work of that body will be merely formal, for the people have already nominated that splendid lawyer and gentleman, J. F. Green, of Jefferson county, as the Democratic candidate for circuit judge. But for all that the convention should be called and the party organization duly preserved. There is no need for any further delay, either.

LAST winter Hill, Gorman, Brice et al entered into a conspiracy to defeat Cleveland's renomination by defeating Mills for Speaker. Sam. Byrns obeyed their orders and voted for Crisp. Hill et al have been rebuked and Cleveland renominated. Let us see if the people will not speak further and rebuke Byrns for his abandonment of the people's choice. Byrns' vote against Mills showed he was against Cleveland. His partner's declarations and curses against Cleveland furnish further evidence, if such were necessary.

THE Potosi Independent lays considerable stress on its assertion that Hon. Sam. Byrns two years ago redeemed the Tenth district from Republicanism, and urges this as one of the chief reasons why he should be given the nomination this year. The same reason may be applied with much greater force in favor of Mr. Fyan of Webster county. He redeemed the old Thirteenth district in 1890 from the Republican rule which had held undisputed sway over it for six long years, while the old Tenth had never been of pronounced Republican tendency, but was accidentally Kinseyed in the general defeat of 1888.

THE Ste. Genevieve Fair-Play says: "Sam Byrns has made us a good and faithful representative. He is a favorite with the farmers and laboring men." We are truly glad to know this for a fact. There are some people unreasonable enough to assert that Sam wasn't as faithful as he might have been when he ignored the wishes of his constituents on the Speakership; and we feared that some of your hard-headed laborers would take amiss his laudable efforts against the iniquitous Weekly Pay Bill. We repeat it, we are glad—O, so glad—to know that the Fair-Play knows that Sam Byrns in doing these things made us a good and faithful representative, and "is a favorite with the farmers and laboring men."

We wonder if the people know that Louis F. Dinning, Sam Byrns' partner and campaign manager, has, for years, been a denouncer of Cleveland, saying "he was only a tub of guts," did not deserve credit for his utterances on the tariff, etc.? Such is the case, however, and we dare Dinning to deny it. He made use of these expressions not ten days before he was against Cleveland, and we are justified in inferring that Dinning was merely uttering Byrns' sentiments when he made use of the above expressions. We dare Dinning to deny using them. Byrns was and is against Cleveland. Do you want him in Congress? Answer, Democrats!

HEREAFTER no man, however high he may stand in the councils of the Democratic party, or what commission he may hold from them, will dare to trifle with the tariff issue. Our leaders in Congress and elsewhere have received their marching orders, and those who are not enlisted for the war will find this the only convenient point at which they can turn aside. In a moment of timidity and strange blindness the Committee on Resolutions was induced to falsify the purposes of the party or it sought to stifle its highest ambition, but there is no committee, there is no organization, there is no combination of forces or influence that can ever dominate the Democratic party and drive it from the broad highway of freedom.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

WE make no war on Mr. Byrns because we happen to have a candidate from Iron county for Congress. We are opposing Mr. Byrns for the reason that he willingly violated a trust imposed in him by a confiding people. The action of Mr. Byrns and like members in Congress, in refusing to vote for Mills for Speaker, has placed the party in the attitude of straddling on the tariff. If Mr. Byrns and these other Crisp-voting representatives had done their duty, Mills could now be Speaker, tariff reform in able hands in the lower house, and our position on that question so plainly and meekly marked out, that we could fight this campaign from an offensive rather than defensive standpoint. Mr. Byrns must make way for a man in sympathy with the purposes of Democracy.

In this issue will be found the announcement of Hon. W. R. Edgar, of Iron county, as a candidate for Congress in this (the 13th) district subject to the action of the Democratic nominating convention. Mr. Edgar hails from a strong Democratic county, and one too that is centrally located. Iron has supported Wayne county candidates for district offices, and never before has she in turn asked Wayne's support for one of her favorite sons. Iron demands a little reciprocity in this matter and we think the people of our county are sufficiently Democratic to grant it. Wayne and Iron county people have mixed and mingled together so much that they are all "kin folks." Mr. Edgar is a gentleman of rare ability and is in every way fitted to fill a chair in the Representative Hall at Washington.—Greenville Journal.

W. J. CAMPBELL, of Illinois, has been chosen to succeed J. S. Clarkson, of Iowa, as chairman of the National Republican Executive Committee. Mr. Campbell is a proper person to conduct a Republican campaign. For years he has been the hired attorney of the Armour Meat Trust, and has never attained any prominence except as a corporation attorney and lobbyist. It may be mentioned that Campbell is a man after the President's heart, and was chosen to conduct the campaign by Ben. himself. Quay and Clarkson dived deep into corruption to elect Harrison four years ago, but that individual, approving and abetting in their disreputable methods at the time, has never since lost an opportunity to slight and heap indignity on them. Among the practices of these two eminent Republican individuals in 1888, were those of robbery and bribery; from all accounts the new chairman, Mr. Campbell, will prove a worthy successor.

If the Prohibitionists now in Convention want a "logical candidate" for the Presidency, they ought to nominate that popular New Yorker, whose name is a household word everywhere, and is even more familiar to women than to men, W. Jennings Demorest. He is the pattern Prohibitionist of the country. He is a veteran in the cause. He practises the cause. He has been bled for the cause. He has made speeches for it. He has stood up for it through thick and thin. He has run for petty offices in its interest. He has been faithful to it straight along from 'way back. He is, in every way, theological candidate. Above all, he is a New Yorker—glorious fact! He has seven rivals for the nomination, Bidwell of California, Stewart of Ohio, Dickie of Michigan, Ritter of Indiana, Cushing of Maine, Briggs of Pennsylvania, and Kelly of Tennessee; but there is not one of them all who amounts to shucks when compared with Brother Demorest.

Then there are at least a dozen dark horses standing in the background, including St. John, who says he doesn't want the nomination—look out for him!—and Bascom and Wardwell, both of whom need watching. The Prohibitionists are not to be laughed at in a close election. They had a Presidential candidate named Fisk four years ago, who polled in this State 30,231 votes, and in the whole country very nearly a quarter of a million. We cannot tell what they will do this year if, in making a nomination, they select the logical candidate, Demorest of New York, the pattern Prohibitionist.—N. Y. Sun.

Questions for Mr. Byrns to Answer.

On May 25th Mr. Byrns writes that he is "not a candidate and doesn't want it," and on June 11th to Mr. Anthony and to parties in Wayne that, "Barkis is willin'."

May not the solution be found in the answers to the following questions?

- 1st. Was the change of heart owing to the number of candidates announced, causing him to believe he could get it easier than he could against one opponent?
 - 2d. Was the change of front premeditated and predetermined from the beginning?
 - 3d. Was his change of front caused by a desire to hold Jefferson and Washington counties in an effort to dictate who should be nominated?
 - 4th. Did he have an understanding with Burks, as many think?
 - 5th. Did his partner bring out Fyan, as many think?
 - 6th. Is he simply in it out of revenge, to "down" Mr. Edgar, as he has threatened?
 - 7th. Has he, too, like his partner, "two knives up each sleeve"?
- We commend these queries to the consideration of the Democrats of this district.

It Should Be in Every House.

J. B. Wilson, 371 Clay St., Sharpsburg, Pa., says he will not be without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, that it cured his wife who was threatened with Pneumonia after an attack of "La Grippe," when various other remedies and several physicians had done her no good. Robert Barber, of Cooksport, Pa., claims Dr. King's New Discovery has done him more good than anything he ever used for Lung Trouble. Nothing like it. Try it. Free Trial Bottles at P. R.
